SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Monday, October 20
4:00 – 6:00 pm
#itooamMaryland: Responses to Racial Microaggressions*
Round table discussions led by trained facilitators about the impact of microaggressions on the everyday lives of students of color.
Colony Ballroom, Adele H. Stamp Student Union

Tuesday, October 21
4:00 – 5:30 pm
"From Fallujah to Ferguson: Overcoming Rankism & Creating Dignity for All"
Presentation by Dr. Robert Fuller followed by book signing
1103 Bioscience Research Building

Wednesday, October 22
1:00 – 3:00 pm
Queer Monologues Open Mic
LGBTQ community members and allies share their personal stories of rising above heterosexism, homophobia, sexism, etc. Prepared and impromptu expressions are encouraged.
Basement, Adele H. Stamp Student Union (outside Food Co-op)

Wednesday, October 22
3:00 – 5:00 pm
“Nothing about Us, Without Us”
A community forum for people with disabilities and their allies at Maryland
Special Events Room, McKeldin Library, 6th floor

Thursday, October 23
4:00 – 6:00 pm
Symposium on the Child Migrant Crisis
Representatives from the Embassy of El Salvador and local immigration and resource centers discuss the immigrant crisis at the border in Maryland, and on our campus.
Special Events Room, McKeldin Library, 6th floor

*According to Sue et al. (2007), a microaggression is a brief, everyday verbal or behavioral response that, either intentionally or unintentionally, communicates a negative or derogatory slight or insult toward a marginalized group.

diversity.umd.edu

CO-SPONSORS Office of Diversity & Inclusion (OMSE, Nyumburu, Incentive Awards Program, LGBT Equity Center, UniversityEquity)