TEACHING

Classroom Instruction

PADP 4200: The Public Policies of Risky Behavior. This course offered a survey of the economic principals of risky behaviors and policy analysis research evaluating the effectiveness of public policies aimed at mitigating harmful effects of risky behaviors. As Instructor of Record, I designed the syllabus, redesigned the course, invited and hosted guest speakers, and was responsible for all aspects of instruction and grading. Student course evaluation overall score: 4.5/5

Other Teaching

Designed, taught, and facilitated a six-session public lecture and discussion series on the Mueller Report as part of a partnership between UGA's School of Public and International Affairs, WUGA (radio station), and the Athens-Clarke County Library.

UGA Athlete Tutor and Academic Mentor (2018-2019)
