Very best,

Sharing with you our December 2020 newsletter!

Dear Communicators,

COVID-19 Vaccines
Webinar | Listening to Community Voices: Addressing Questions and Concerns about Effective Communication
Sunday, December 20 | 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

COVID-19 Vaccines
Webinar | Talking With Patients and Communities About the COVID-19 Vaccines: Tips for Health Care Providers
Sunday, December 20 | 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Fall 2020 Commencement
EVENTS

HAPPY AND WELL

Your gift to this fund supports our COVID-19 interventions and any experiences aimed at bolstering child and family advocacy.

A Boost for Children: $3M Gift Honors Legacy

A new $3 million gift from the Pizzigati family honors the legacy of Karabelle Pizzigati, a forceful backer of child welfare and education, and who graduated in the past 10 years for their philanthropy and/or advancement of the School of Public Health, University of Maryland.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021

We are excited to celebrate our Class of 2021 graduates and their achievements.

King, PhD ’13 (Health Services) will deliver the keynote address.

You are invited to celebrate our graduates by watching the School of Public Health staff and faculty gathered virtually to celebrate distance commencement on Sunday, December 20, at 1:00 pm EST and then joining in watching the student and alumni news.

STUDENT AND ALUMNI NEWS

Veeraj Shah Selected as Rhodes Scholarship Finalist

Senior Veeraj Shah is a finalist for this year’s Rhodes Scholarship and will deliver the keynote address.

Nominate yourself or a fellow SPH Alumni for New Generation at UMD 2021.

Your gift to this fund supports our COVID-19 interventions and any experiences aimed at bolstering child and family advocacy.

The Well Terp

Find science-based wellness tips for healthy and happy living in our weekly feature, The Well Terp.

Happier and Well on this winter.

This week’s tips include information on good sleep hygiene and staying well this winter.

The Black Lives Matter movement became a global force this year, and Professor Mia Smith-Bynum and colleagues describe how therapists should address race-related stress and trauma with Black families.

A Call to Action for Therapists to Do Better for African American Clients

Black Faculty Matter: A Call to Action for Therapists to Do Better for African American Clients

Study Finds Rural-Urban Disparity in Telehealth Access

Compared to metro area hospitals, rural hospitals have a lower ability to electronically transfer medical records and have fewer telehealth systems with patient engagement.

Disparity in Telehealth Study Finds Rural-Urban

School of Public Health staff and faculty gathered virtually to celebrate distance commencement on Sunday, December 20, at 1:00 pm EST and then joining in watching the student and alumni news.

Finalist

Veeraj Shah Selected as Rhodes Scholarship Finalist

Senior Veeraj Shah is a finalist for this year’s Rhodes Scholarship and will deliver the keynote address.

Nominate yourself or a fellow SPH Alumni for New Generation at UMD 2021.

Your gift to this fund supports our COVID-19 interventions and any experiences aimed at bolstering child and family advocacy.

A Boost for Children: $3M Gift Honors Legacy

A new $3 million gift from the Pizzigati family honors the legacy of Karabelle Pizzigati, a forceful backer of child welfare and education, and who graduated in the past 10 years for their philanthropy and/or advancement of the School of Public Health, University of Maryland.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021

We are excited to celebrate our Class of 2021 graduates and their achievements.

King, PhD ’13 (Health Services) will deliver the keynote address.

You are invited to celebrate our graduates by watching the School of Public Health staff and faculty gathered virtually to celebrate distance commencement on Sunday, December 20, at 1:00 pm EST and then joining in watching the student and alumni news.

STUDENT AND ALUMNI NEWS

Veeraj Shah Selected as Rhodes Scholarship Finalist

Senior Veeraj Shah is a finalist for this year’s Rhodes Scholarship and will deliver the keynote address.

Nominate yourself or a fellow SPH Alumni for New Generation at UMD 2021.

Your gift to this fund supports our COVID-19 interventions and any experiences aimed at bolstering child and family advocacy.

A Boost for Children: $3M Gift Honors Legacy

A new $3 million gift from the Pizzigati family honors the legacy of Karabelle Pizzigati, a forceful backer of child welfare and education, and who graduated in the past 10 years for their philanthropy and/or advancement of the School of Public Health, University of Maryland.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021

We are excited to celebrate our Class of 2021 graduates and their achievements.

King, PhD ’13 (Health Services) will deliver the keynote address.

You are invited to celebrate our graduates by watching the School of Public Health staff and faculty gathered virtually to celebrate distance commencement on Sunday, December 20, at 1:00 pm EST and then joining in watching the student and alumni news.

STUDENT AND ALUMNI NEWS

Veeraj Shah Selected as Rhodes Scholarship Finalist

Senior Veeraj Shah is a finalist for this year’s Rhodes Scholarship and will deliver the keynote address.

Nominate yourself or a fellow SPH Alumni for New Generation at UMD 2021.

Your gift to this fund supports our COVID-19 interventions and any experiences aimed at bolstering child and family advocacy.

A Boost for Children: $3M Gift Honors Legacy

A new $3 million gift from the Pizzigati family honors the legacy of Karabelle Pizzigati, a forceful backer of child welfare and education, and who graduated in the past 10 years for their philanthropy and/or advancement of the School of Public Health, University of Maryland.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021

We are excited to celebrate our Class of 2021 graduates and their achievements.

King, PhD ’13 (Health Services) will deliver the keynote address.

You are invited to celebrate our graduates by watching the School of Public Health staff and faculty gathered virtually to celebrate distance commencement on Sunday, December 20, at 1:00 pm EST and then joining in watching the student and alumni news.

STUDENT AND ALUMNI NEWS

Veeraj Shah Selected as Rhodes Scholarship Finalist

Senior Veeraj Shah is a finalist for this year’s Rhodes Scholarship and will deliver the keynote address.

Nominate yourself or a fellow SPH Alumni for New Generation at UMD 2021.

Your gift to this fund supports our COVID-19 interventions and any experiences aimed at bolstering child and family advocacy.

A Boost for Children: $3M Gift Honors Legacy

A new $3 million gift from the Pizzigati family honors the legacy of Karabelle Pizzigati, a forceful backer of child welfare and education, and who graduated in the past 10 years for their philanthropy and/or advancement of the School of Public Health, University of Maryland.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021

We are excited to celebrate our Class of 2021 graduates and their achievements.

King, PhD ’13 (Health Services) will deliver the keynote address.

You are invited to celebrate our graduates by watching the School of Public Health staff and faculty gathered virtually to celebrate distance commencement on Sunday, December 20, at 1:00 pm EST and then joining in watching the student and alumni news.

STUDENT AND ALUMNI NEWS

Veeraj Shah Selected as Rhodes Scholarship Finalist

Senior Veeraj Shah is a finalist for this year’s Rhodes Scholarship and will deliver the keynote address.

Nominate yourself or a fellow SPH Alumni for New Generation at UMD 2021.

Your gift to this fund supports our COVID-19 interventions and any experiences aimed at bolstering child and family advocacy.

A Boost for Children: $3M Gift Honors Legacy

A new $3 million gift from the Pizzigati family honors the legacy of Karabelle Pizzigati, a forceful backer of child welfare and education, and who graduated in the past 10 years for their philanthropy and/or advancement of the School of Public Health, University of Maryland.

Congratulations to the Class of 2021

We are excited to celebrate our Class of 2021 graduates and their achievements.

King, PhD ’13 (Health Services) will deliver the keynote address.

You are invited to celebrate our graduates by watching the School of Public Health staff and faculty gathered virtually to celebrate distance commencement on Sunday, December 20, at 1:00 pm EST and then joining in watching the student and alumni news.