To: bfaris@umd.edu

Reply-To: UMD School of Public Health <sph-comm@umd.edu>

UMD School of Public Health

Public Health Research @ Maryland 2021: Learning from 2020 to Advance Public Health
Maryland Masterclass: Cooking with Joy
Thursday, February 25 | 6:00 pm EST
The Colors of COVID19: A Black History Month Webinar with Michael Osterholm, MD
Tuesday, February 23 | 10:00 am EST
Taking Nature Black 2021 Conference
Tuesday, February 16 | 6:00 pm - 7:30 pm EST
Student Engagement Virtual Fair Spring 2021
Wednesday, February 10 | 12:15 pm EST
Life in the Time of COVID-19 Online Chat

EVENTS

good news by

Our Happiness & Wellness Initiative shares “Some Good News” from the SPH and our extended development guidance to students during the academic year. Apply to become a mentor and help Senate District 10, which was formerly held by Yvanna Cancela. Doñate, who also served on What Kind of Mask Should You Be Wearing? UMD Professor Weighs In —
Washington Post
California Healthline
A Recipe for Trouble? Reversal of California Outdoor Dining Ban Has Heads Spinning —

climate change, SPH students and faculty are
As the world responds to crises including the
Giving Day
SPH students and faculty are helping to accelerating the creation of an Office of Public Health Practice, which will oversee partnerships with
New Positions, Student Awards Honor RWJF Veteran, School of Public Health Adviser Robin
Students' Public Health Experiences
$1.5 M Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Gift Will Expand

Our Happiness & Wellness Initiative shares “Some Good News” from the SPH and our extended
development guidance to students during the academic year. Apply to become a mentor and help Senate District 10, which was formerly held by Yvanna Cancela. Doñate, who also served on What Kind of Mask Should You Be Wearing? UMD Professor Weighs In —
Washington Post
California Healthline
A Recipe for Trouble? Reversal of California Outdoor Dining Ban Has Heads Spinning —

climate change, SPH students and faculty are
As the world responds to crises including the
Giving Day
SPH students and faculty are helping to
accelerating the creation of an Office of Public Health Practice, which will oversee partnerships with
New Positions, Student Awards Honor RWJF Veteran, School of Public Health Adviser Robin
Students' Public Health Experiences
$1.5 M Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Gift Will Expand

Our Happiness & Wellness Initiative shares “Some Good News” from the SPH and our extended development guidance to students during the academic year. Apply to become a mentor and help Senate District 10, which was formerly held by Yvanna Cancela. Doñate, who also served on What Kind of Mask Should You Be Wearing? UMD Professor Weighs In —
Washington Post
California Healthline
A Recipe for Trouble? Reversal of California Outdoor Dining Ban Has Heads Spinning —