An Update from the SPH on COVID-19 | April 7, 2020

Supports the health and well-being of our state.

Individuals and this program are part of shaping the legislation that passions with Maryland legislators. The school is proud that these Health trains and pairs a group of older adults with diverse skills and work of policymakers in Annapolis. Each year, the School of Public Health "Legacy Leader" interns made the most of their time supporting the forced us all to distance ourselves physically, but our 2019-2020 The 2020 Maryland legislative session ended early as COVID-19...Celebrating 20 Years of the Legacy Leadership Institute on Facebook Live Chat Tomorrow at Noon...Staying Healthy...Visit SPH Faculty in the News...The Latest SPH Research...SPH Faculty in the News...Keep Connected With the SPH Community...Some Good News...